

Want your children to become responsible with money?

There's a great way to help them learn to use money wisely while having fun with Googolplex: The CU Guide for Student Moneymakers. You'll find Googolplex on our Web site. A fresh story or game is added each week, so there's always something new. Articles and activities cover topics like:

- Buying a used car
- Finding your first job
- Planning for college
- Saving for something important

Plus fun facts, quizzes, tricks, games, and puzzles about money.

Googolplex is organized into three categories to deliver age-appropriate activities to students in elementary, middle, and high school. And you might find something interesting too. Visit Googolplex on our Web site and find out today!
